FOREWORD

This book is written because we realized we know so little about our Ancestors and were not able to find many that could give us any information. You have heard the remark "they knew nothing from whence they came and cared little about where they go from here." This is not true of the many members of the Monsieur Price family we have interviewed

Not having had any experience in compiling family records and documents our system may be crude. You will find we have taken the families of the seven sons and one daughter and arranged by generations. Some families we have been able to complete from the first to the eighth generation. There are other families we have not been able to contact.

This work has taken a great deal of time and patience, but it has been a rewarding experience. It will be well worth all our efforts to preserve what records we have if it will inspire a descendent in the future to revise this book and bring it up to date.

There are many we would like to name to whom we are greatly indebted but space forbids. The Price Family shall always be indebted to Mr. F. Latta Baucom for giving us the first family record we have. We wish to express our appreciation to Mr. George Winchester for being so generous with his records of many families of Union County, North Carolina. To Mr. Glenn S. Hawfield, Sr., for the history of the Houston Family, also the history of Union County Schools. Mrs. Nancy Price Earnhardt is to be commended for typing all records.

Lastly, may we say we have truly enjoyed working with each other, also every one contacted by letter, interview or telephone.

Born March 17, 1880 on the farm where Monsieur Price lived and died.

The only record of the Monsieur Price Family was written in 1925, by Mr. Baucom and published in "The Monroe Journal", Monroe, North Carolina.

This picture was taken several years ago by Page Price. The following information was given by F. Latta Baucom:

"Joseph Price was the first person we have any knowledge of living there. Later his brother Andy lived there. Hampton Price, grandson of Andy told me he was born in that house.

The place was bought by Daniel Cuthbertson, a son of Moses Cuthbertson. The next owner was N. W. Braswell; then Culpepper Braswell; then the present owner Glenn Braswell.

The old Price House is located on the Monroe and New Salem Road. The road was first called Burnt Store Road and later was known as the Monroe and Euto Road."

THE NAME AND FAMILY OF PRICE

Compiled by

The Media Research Bureau, Washington, D. C.

The name of PRICE is of Welsh origin and was derived from Ap Rys, meaning "son of Rys", in the days before surnames were used. Later the "A" was dropped and the name became Prys. It evolved through the form of Pryce to its present form of spelling--Price.

The line of Welsh princes, from whom are descended the Price families, began with Cadell, Prince of all Cymru in 948 A. D. He was the father of Howel, who had Owain, who had Einon, who had Tewdwr, who had Rys ap Tewdwr, who had Gruffydd ap Rys, Lord of South Wales, who had Rys ap Gruffydd, Lord Rys, who had Gruffydd, Marigwyn, and Rys Vychan.

Sir Rys ap Thomas, of this line, married Eva, daughter of Henry ap Gwelym of Henry Court, and had a son named Griffith.

Among the early records of the name are those of Sir Robert ap Rys and Sir Richard ap Rys in the time of King Henry VII; Sir Rys ap Thomas, a Knight of the Holy Sepulcher, who died in the year 1527; Rees ap Rys or Prys, who acquired a fortune and several landed estates before 1525; the Reverend Daniel Price of Oxford and London, grandson of the before mentioned Rees ap Rys or Prys; John Pryce, who was Sheriff of Montgomery County from 1566 to 1586; and Edward Pryce, who held the same position in 1615.

All of the families of the name in England and Wales are believed to descend from this ancient Welsh line. It is probable then that most of the American families are related.

John Price, one of the first of the family to emigrate to America, was born in Montgomery County, Wales, in 1584. He came to Jamestown, Va., in 1620, bringing with him his wife Mary and their sons, William and Matthewes. After the death of Mary, he married Ann and had a daughter named Mary by her. He was the owner of two hundred and fifty acres of land in the year 1626 and his fortunes constantly increased.

William, son of the immigrant John, made his home in Gloucester County and his descendants are to be found in all parts of the South. He had two sons, William (who married Mary Murray) and Samuel, and probably other children as well.

Matthewes, son of the immigrant John, lived in Henrico County and was the father of John Price who married Jane Cannon.

One of the first members of the family to come to New England was David Price, who settled at Dorchester, Mass., about 1630. He became a "freeman" in the year 1636.

In 1641 Walter Price came from Bristol, England, to Salem, Mass., bringing with him his wife Elizabeth. Walter and Elizabeth were the parents of Elizabeth, Theodore, John, Hannah, William, Samuel, and Walter.

Theodore, eldest son of the immigrant Walter, married Ann Wood in 1667 and had two daughters, Elizabeth and Ann. He was lost at sea in 1671.

John, son of the immigrant Walter, married Sarah Wolcott of Windsor in 1674 and had one son Walter.

Walter's sons, William and Walter, were lost at sea at the same time that their brother Theodore lost his life, and no record of Samuel has been found. The daughter Elizabeth married John Croade in 1659, and Hannah married Hilliard Veren in 1670.

Another early colonist was Matthew Price who made his home at Charlestown, Mass., in 1654. He had issue by his wife Elizabeth of a son named Joseph and probably of other children.

In the year 1657 William Price was married at Watertown, Mass. The exact date of his emigration is not known. His wife was Mary Marplehead and his children by her were William, Matthew, Mary, John, Sarah, Benjamin, Grace, James, Joseph, Elizabeth, and Hannah.

William, the eldest son of William of Watertown, removed to Groton, and his brother John settled at Lancaster. Their sister Hannah married Thomas Sander-son in 1702.

James, son of William of Watertown, had issue by his wife Sarah of three children, Josiah, Mindwell, and Abigail.

Joseph, youngest son of William of Watertown, married Margaret Child in 1701. Their children were Margaret, Joseph, Hannah, John, Joshua, James, Mehit-able, and Jonas.

Another early settler in the New World was Richard Price who made his home at Boston in the year 1658. The following year he married Elizabeth Cromwell, by whom he has issue of Thomas, Joyliffe, Elizabeth, and Richard.

Another Richard Price settled in the same town in 1662. His wife was Grace Waits and their two sons were named Ebenezer and Richard.

Sometime before 1690 Philip Price came from Wales to Haverford, Delaware County. He later purchased one thousand acres of land near Plymouth, in what was then Philadelphia County. He brought his wife with him but her name was not known, and after her death he married Margaret Morgan. By his first wife he had issue of a son named Isaac, who married Susan Shoemaker in 1696 and had a son called Philip.

About the end of the seventeenth century Jacob Price was an officer in the Presbyterian Church of Elizabethtown, N. J. His wife was Elizabeth Millar and his children by her were Moses, Daniel, Jonathan, Elizabeth, and Sarah.

Moses, eldest son of Jacob, married Comfort Bond and had issue by her of six children, Joseph, Rachel, Mary, Rhoda, Comfort, and Margarette.

Besides the families already mentioned, there was a family of the name of German extraction which came to Germantown, Pa., in 1719 in the person of the Rev. Jacob Price, whose father was John Jacob Preisz of Witzenstein, Prussia. He had one son named John who married an Indian maiden and had two children, Daniel and John.

The family in America may be described as a thrifty, industrious, and sociable race, possessed of strong character. Active, fearless, and shrewd, the Prices have figured prominently in many and varied fields of endeavor.

Among those of the name who served as officers in the War of the Revolution were Captain Asa, of Massachusetts; Captain Benjamin, of Maryland; Captain George, of Virginia; Captain Thomas, of Virginia; and Captain William, of Pennsylvania.

John, Walter, Matthew, Richard, James, William, Daniel, and Thomas are some of the Christian names most frequently found in annals of the family.

A few of the members of the family who have attained distinction in America in more recent times are:

Ira Murice Price (b.1856), of Ohio, Orientalist.

Sterling G. Price (1809-1869), of Virginia, military officer.

Thomas Randolph Price (1839-1903, of Virginia, educator.

Chester B. Price (b. 1885), of Missouri and New York, etcher, architect, and illustrator.

Harrison Jackson Price (b. 1868), of West Virginia and Virginia and Virginia, army officer.

William Jennings Price (b. 1873), of Kentucky, lawyer, diplomat, and educator.

William Gray Price, Jr. (b. 1869), of Pennsylvania, army officer.

Willard De Mille Price (b. 1887), of Canada and Washington, editor and lecturer.

Frank J. Price (b. 1860), of Missouri and Pennsylvania, editor and author.

George Merriman Price (b. 1865), of New York, surgeon and educator.

Hickman Price (b. 1886), of Missouri and Connecticut, agriculturist.

Jesse Dashiell Price (b. 1863), of Maryland, member of the Maryland Senate and Congressman.

John Williamson Price, Jr. (b. 1882), of Kentucky, surgeon.

The coat of arms of the ancient Welsh family of Price is that which is most closely related to the American families of the name. It is described in heraldic terms as follows (Burke, General Armory, 1884):

Arms.--"Argent, a cross between four pheons azure."
(Variant: "Argent, a chevron sable, between three ravens.")

Motto.--"Vive hodie", meaning "Live today".
(Variants: "Vita brevis gloria aeterna", and "Auxilium
meum a Domino".

Bring to each of us, our Father, an understanding of how to further Thy work among men. We reckon ourselves as links only in the great chain of life. We pray that we may be able, each of us in his own way, to connect the future with the values of the past. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

WHY YOU HAVE A FAMILY NAME AND WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU

Primitive personal names doubtless originated soon after the invention of spoken language, although the date of their first use is lost in the darkness of ages preceding recorded history. For thousands of years thereafter, first or given names were the only designations that men and women bore; and in the dawn of historic times, when the world was less crowded than it is today and every man knew his neighbor, one title of address was sufficient. Only gradually, with the passing centuries and the increasing complexity of civilized society, did a need arise for more specific designations. While the roots of our system of family names may be traced back to early civilized times, actually the hereditary surname as we know it today dates from a time scarcely earlier than nine hundred years ago.

A surname is a name added to a baptismal or Christian name for the purpose of making it more specific and of indicating family relationship or descent. Classified according to origin, most surnames fall into four general categories: (1) those formed from the given name of the sire; (2) those arising from bodily or personal characteristics; (3) those derived from locality or place of residence; and (4) those derived from occupation. It is easier to understand the story of the development of our institution of surnames if these classifications are borne in mind.

As early as biblical times certain distinguishing appellations were occasionally employed in addition to the given name, as, for instance, Joshua the son of Nun, Simon the son of Jonas, Judas of Galilee, and Simon the Zealot. In ancient Greece daughters were named after their fathers, as Chryseis, the daughter of Chryses; and sons' names were usually an enlarged form of the father's, as Hieronymus, son of Hiero. The Romans, with the rise of their civilization, met the need for hereditary designations by inventing a complex system whereby every patrician traced his descent by taking several names. None of them, however, exactly corresponded to surnames as we know them, for the "clan name", although hereditary, was given also to slaves and other dependents. This system proved to be but a temporary innovation; the overthrow of the Western Empire by barbarian invaders brought about its end and a reversion to the primitive custom of a single name.

The ancient Scandinavians and for the most part the Germans had only individual names, and there were no family names, strictly speaking, among the Celts. But as family and tribal groups grew in size, individual names became inadequate and the need for supplementary appellations began to be felt. Among the first employed were such terms as "the Strong", "the Hardy", "the Stern", "the Dreadful-in-battle"; and the nations of northern Europe soon adopted the practice of adding the father's name to the son's, as Oscar son of Carnuth and Dermid son of Duthno.

True surnames, in the sense of hereditary designations, date in England from about the year 1000. Largely they were introduced from Normandy, although there are records of Saxon surnames prior to the Norman Conquest. Perhaps the oldest known surname in England is that of Hwita Hatte, a keeper of bees, whose daughter was Tate Hatte. During the reign of Edward the Confessor (1042-1066) there were Saxon tenants in Suffolk bearing such names as Suert Magno, Stigand Soror, Siuward Rufus, and Leuric Hobbesune (Hobson); and the Domesday record of 1085-1086, which exhibits some curious combinations of Saxon forenames with Norman family names, shows surnames in still more general use.

By the end of the twelfth century hereditary names had become common in England. But even by 1465 they were not universal. During the reign of Edward V a law was passed to compel certain Irish outlaws to adopt surnames; "They shall take unto them a Surname, either of some Town, or some Colour, as Blacke or Brown, or some Art or Science, as Smyth or Carpenter, or some Office, as Cooke or Butler." And as late as the beginning of the nineteenth century a similar decree compelled Jews in Germany and Austria to add a German surname to the single names which they had previously used.

As stated above, family names may be divided into four general classes according to their origin. One of the largest of these classes is that comprising surnames derived from the given name of the father. Such names were formed by means of an added prefix or suffix denoting either "son of" or a diminutive. English names terminating in son, ing, and Kin are of this type, as are also the innumerable names prefixed with the Gaelic Mac, the Norman Fitz, the Welsh ap, and the Irish O'. Thus John's sons became Johnsons; William's sons, Williams or Wilson; Richard's sons, Richardsons or Richardses (the final "s" of "Richards" being a contraction of "son"); Neill's sons, MacNeills, Herbert's sons, FitzHerberts; Thomas's sons, ap Thomases (ap has been dropped from many names of which it was formerly a part); and Reilly's sons, O'Reillys.

Another class of surnames, those arising from some bodily or personal characteristic of their first bearer, apparently grew out of what were in the first instance nick-names. Thus Peter the strong became Peter Strong, Roger of small stature became Roger Little or Roger Small, and blackhaired William or blond Alfred became William Black or Alfred White. From among the many names of this type, only a few need be mentioned: Long, Short, Hardy, Wise, Good, Gladman, Lover, and Youngman.

A third class of family names, and perhaps the largest of all, is that comprising local surnames--names derived from and originally designating the place of residence of the bearer. Such names were popular in France at an early date and were introduced into England by the Normans, many of whom were known by the titles of their estates. The surnames adopted by the nobility were mainly of this type, being used with the particles De, De la, or Del (meaning "of" or "of the"). The Saxon equivalent was the word atte ("at the"), employed in such names as John atte Brook, Edmind atte Lane, Godwin atte Brigg, and William atte Bourne. A vestige of this usage survives in the names Atwell, Atwood, and Atwater; in other cases the Norman de was substituted; and in still others, such as Wood, Briggs, and Lane, the particle was dropped. The surnames of some of the Pilgrim Fathers illustrate place designations; for instance, Winthrop means "from the friendly village"; Endicott, "an end cottage"; Bradford, "at the broad ford"; and Standish, "a stony park". The suffixes "ford", "ham", "ley", and "ton", denoting locality, are of frequent occurrence in such names as Ashford, Bingham, Burley, and Norton.

While England enjoyed a period of comparative peace under Edward the Confessor, a fourth class of surnames arose--names derived from occupation. The earliest of these seem to have been official names, such as Bishop, Mayor, Fawcett (judge), Alderman, Reeve, Sheriff, Chamberlain, Chancellor, Chaplain, Deacon, Latimer (interpreter, Marshall, Sumner (summoner), and Parker (park-keeper). Trade and craft names, although of the same general type, were of somewhat later origin. Currier was a dresser of skins, Webster a weaver, Wainwright a wagonbuilder, and Baxter a baker. Such names as Smith, Taylor, Barber, Shepherd, Carter, Mason, and Miller are self-explanatory.

Many surnames of today which seem to defy classification or explanation are corruptions of ancient forms which have become disguised almost beyond recognition. Longfellow, for instance, was originally Longueville, Longshanks was Longchamps, Troublefield was Tuberville, Wrinch was Renshaw, Diggles was Douglas, and Snooks was Sevenoaks. Such corruptions of family names, resulting from ignorance of spelling, variations in pronunciation, or merely from the preference of the bearer, tend to baffle both the genealogist and the etymologist. Shakespeare's name is found in some twenty-seven different forms, and the majority of English and Anglo-American surnames have, in their history, appeared in four to a dozen or more variant spellings.

In America a greater variety of family names exists than anywhere else in the world. Surnames of every race and nation are represented. While the greater number are of English, Scotch, Irish, or Welsh origin, brought to this country by scions of families which had borne these names for generations prior to emigration, many others, from central and southern Europe and from the Slavic countries, where the use of surnames is generally a more recently established practice, present considerable difficulty to the student of etymology and family history.

Those Americans who possess old and honored names--who trace the history of their surnames back to sturdy immigrant ancestors, or even beyond, across the seas, and into the dim mists of antiquity--may be rightfully proud of their heritage. While the name, in its origin, may seem ingenious, humble, surprising, or matter-of-fact, its significance today lies not in a literal interpretation of its original meaning but in the many things that have happened to it since it first came into use. In the beginning it was only a word, a convenient label to distinguish one John from his neighbor John who lived across the field. But soon it established itself as a part of the bearer's individuality; and as it passed to his children, his children's children, and their children, it became the symbol not of one man but of a family and all that that family stood for. Handed down from generation to generation, it grew inseparably associated with the achievement, the tradition, and the prestige of the family. Like the coat of arms--that vivid symbolization of the name which warrior ancestors bore in battle--the name itself, borne through every event of a man's life and through the lives of scores of his progenitors, became the badge of family honor--the "good name" to be proud of, to protect, and to fight for if need be. As the worthy deeds of the marching generations have given it dignity and splendor, it has become an institution, a family rallying cry, and the most treasured possession of those who bear it.

ORGANIZATION OF THE MONSIEUR PRICE CLAN

In June, 1954, the children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren of the late Ex-Sherriff Andrew Joseph Price, met at Mr. and Mrs. Lester Winchester's tent at Pleasant Grove Camp Ground, Union County, N. C., for a day of reminising and fellowship together. Also present were: Mrs. Mary Price Howie, daughter of James Wesley Price and Mrs. Kate Clark Hawfield and J. Hampton Price grand-daughter and grandson of Joseph McCollum Price.

On this occasion it was decided to make it an annual affair and call it the Price Reunion. This was put to a vote and was passed unanimously.

The following officers were elected: Miss Lucy Price, President; Mrs. Kate P. Price, Secretary; Loyd Price, Treasurer.

After lunch Miss Lucy Price talked to us and gave us lots of information about our family.

After a very pleasant day together, we adjourned to meet each year, the second Sunday in June.

Respectfully submitted,

(Mrs.) Kate Price, Sec.

THE FIRST REUNION

The first real meeting of the Monsieur and Joseph and Elizabeth McCollum Price families was held at Pleasant Grove Camp Ground, Union County, N. C., the Second Sunday in June, 1955.

The meeting was called to order by Lucy Price, President. Photostatic copies of a land grant from King of England given to Monsieur Price and the will of Joseph Price, were passed for each one to see. The original was owned by Lucy Price.

We opened our meeting by singing "Faith of Our Fathers", T. A. Plyler presided at the piano, after which Rev. Robert M. Price lead us in prayer. Then the minutes of our fellowship meeting of 1954 were read and approved. Next Miss Price read the names of the families down through the fourth generation. She also told of the old cemeteries visited and the finding of Joseph Price's grave marked with native stone and hand carved. Also, the finding of the old cemetery where Monsieur Price was known to be buried, but owing to condition of cemetery and broken stones (all native stones) we were unable to locate it.

Miss Mary Howey gave the names of all the descendents of James Wesley Price. J. Hampton Price gave the names of descendants of J. McCollum Price. Kate Price gave the descendants of A. Joseph Price. Marvin Ritch gave names of descendants of Eliza Price Ritch, and Grace Phifer Davis gave names of descendants of Sara Price Reid. After reading of each, the descendants present were asked to stand.

Rev. Robert M. Price, Grandson of J. McCollum Price, then showed a watch, over one hundred years old belonging to his Grandfather, which came from England and wound with a very peculiar key, one end of which wound the watch, the other end was used for setting watch.

All ministers were asked to stand. Those present were: Rev. C. H. Rowan (Former Pastor of Siler Presbyterian Church, Rev. Q. N. Hunnicutt (Siler Presbyterian Church), Rev. Kenneth Moore (Weddington Methodist Church), and Rev. Albright (Former Pastor of Pleasant Grove Methodist Church) and Rev. Robert M. Price, whom I have already mentioned.

Then all who had pictures of past generations were asked to place them at front of Church to be seen. We had pictures of J. McCollum Price, A. Joseph Price, and Second Wife, Amy Howey Price and Eliza Price Ritch.

Last came electing of officers for the next year. As this our first real meeting had been a very long one and it was getting rather late, the same officers were unanimously elected to serve another year. After singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again", we adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

(Mrs.) Kate Price, Sec.

PRICE REUNION

As President for the Price Reunion to be held the second Sunday of June, 1955, at Pleasant Grove Camp ground, Union County, N. C., I shall give an account of our work.

We were anxious to tell you we had our family record complete from the first Price to come to America to 1955. But we have not been able to learn who Monsieur Price married, or of the seven sons of Monsieur Price only Joseph--he married Elizabeth McCollum.

Loyd and Kate Price and I made two trips to see Latta Baucom to see if he could help us, but missed find him at home.

Accompanied by Loyd and Kate Price we have visited four burial grounds trying to find the graves of our ancestors. We were most anxious to visit the grave of Monsieur Price. We found the burial ground but were not able to identify his grave. The burial ground is grown up with trees and undergrowth. There are several graves with native slate markers. We are going back and scrub the stones and try to find some inscriptions. The burial ground is located on a hill on Stewart's Fork Creek near the bridge four miles from Monroe, N. C. on the Monroe and Albemarle Highway.

We spent one Sunday morning at the McCollum Cemetery searching for the grave of Joseph Price, son of Monsieur Price. This is a large country cemetery located back in the woods off the Olive Branch Road. We were able to drive to the cemetery but the road is very narrow. In the upper part of the cemetery are numerous graves with slate stones but no inscriptions. We were told by Mr. Frank Stegall that they were the graves of slaves. In the lower part there are several nice marble stones marking the graves of McCollums, Cuthbertsons and Phifers. Then the remaining graves of the cemetery are slate stones as markers with inscriptions but so dimmed by time and weather that we had to scrub them to be able to read the inscriptions. The last one we scrubbed was "J. Price--May 2, 1837". Were we happy! It is located under a dogwood tree near where the McCollums are buried. We cleaned off the grave as best we could. Then Loyd placed a large oak block, Kate planted a rose and I planted an Iris that we found on the edge of the cemetery.

From the McCollum Cemetery we went in search of the Price--Tomberlin burial ground. It is located back of Frank Stegall's home on the Olive Branch Road. We had to drive through Mr. Stegall's farm to get to it. This burial ground is entirely grown up with pine seedlings and other trees. By scrubbing the slate stones we found a few with the name Price. We made a record of all the names we were able to read.

Last we visited the McWhorter Cemetery near Lester Winchester's home. This is a pretty burial ground. Here we saw the grave of our Grandmother--Elizabeth McCollum Phifer. She has a marble stone and the inscription reads as follows: "In memory of Elizabeth Phifer, Born May 4, 1796---Died Jan. 17, 1875. Age 78 yrs. 8 mos. and 13 days. Remember friends as you pass by as you are now so once was I. As I am now so must you be, Prepare for death and follow me." We are indebted to Lester and Pearl Price Winchester for taking care of this cemetery. Wouldn't you like to see a nice marker at Monsieur and Joseph Price's graves?

As the youngest member of the fourth generation, I would like to tell you of the fifth, sixth, etc. generations of Monsieur Price a few things I remember my father, Andrew Joseph Price, told of his family. Andrew Joseph was born three months after the death of his father, Joseph Price. His mother, Elizabeth McCollum Price, wanted to name him for his father. They had one son named Joseph McCollum but called him McCollum, so she named her baby Andrew Joseph and called him Joseph. When my father was about two years old his mother married Mr. David Phifer, so the family moved from "down below Monroe" to the Phifer Place near Wesley Chapel--Carr Price owns the Phifer Place at the present time. My Father said his mother always told him his Father's family came from France and landed in Penn. There were three brothers that came from France to America. Monsieur came to N. C. and he didn't know what became of the other brothers. She also told him the Price Brothers were all tall, handsome, good young men. They were known for their love of music and all had good voices and loved to sing. She said his Father had the most beautiful voice she ever heard. Some of the characteristics of our ancestors as I have been able to learn that we should appreciate and try to pattern our lives after are: They were religious, patriotic, progressive, generous, believed in education, and hospitable. "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches."

Respectfully submitted,

THE SECOND REUNION

The second reunion of the Monsieur Price families was held at Pleasant Grove Camp Ground, Sunday, June 10th, 1956.

We had no morning program, we thinking it best to allow those who wished to attend their own churches first.

At one o'clock we spread our bountiful lunches on tables already prepared for us by our dinner and ground committee composed of Mrs. Pearl Price Winchester, Mrs. Mary Price Howie and Wade Howey. At this period we were all chatting and having a jovial time, but Hampton Price soon quieted us by rapping several times on the table, he then asked The Rev. C. H. Rowan of Walkersville Presbyterian Church to ask the blessing.

Immediately after lunch we assembled in the church for our program. The meeting was called to order by our president, Miss Lucy Price. We used as our opening song "Faith of our Fathers", followed by prayer by The Rev. Robert Price. Then all ministers and visitors were recognized.

Representatives of the following Price families were present: Milas, Eliza Price Ritch, Sara Price Reid, James Wesley Price, J. McCollum Price, and A. Joseph Price. Also present for the first time were F. Latta Baucom and daughter and son-in-law Mr. & Mrs. Clontz (Mr. Baucom is the son of Emeline Price Baucom); Vann Secrest, Mrs. Mattie Secrest Helms and Mrs. Mary Secrest Hinson (son and daughters of Mrs. Lydia Price Secrest), Vann Secrest, Jr. and children; also Dr. Marvin Smith (son of Donna Price Smith) all descendents of Monsieur Price.

We are happy to tell you our clan is increasing in new members at each meeting, but we are very sorry to have to report several who have passed on since our last meeting, including the following: Lonnie Baucom, Miss Clara Ritch Hall, Robert Clark, Miss Ruth Redwine and Earl Price. We all stood with bowed heads in sacred memory as the Rev. Robert Price prayed a very beautiful and impressive prayer in memory of these deceased ones.

Next the secretary read minutes of the last meeting and the treasurer gave his report. This was followed by the president's report, which is below.

After singing "God be with you 'till we meet again" we adjourned to meet again the 2nd Sunday in June, 1957.

Respectfully Submitted,
Mrs. Kate Price, Secretary

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

We are sorry to disappoint you this year by not having our family history completed and printed as we had planned. Hampton Price had a copy of what was read at last year's Reunion published in the Monroe Journal and I hope you clipped the article. Mr. Beasley gave the article a very prominent place in the Journal.

We are very fortunate not to have printed in booklet the material we had for we have been able to obtain additional information that is valuable.

Your officers made a visit to Latta Baucom and found him most interesting. He has no family records, only the article he had in the Journal several years ago

PRESIDENT'S REPORT (Cont'd.)

He has a wonderful memory, and having lived all his life in the community where our Price families first settled was able to tell us that Monsieur Price had a brother named Uriah. Uriah Price had no children. He left North Carolina and went West to live. There was a spring on the Price property known as the "Riah Spring" named for Uriah. He said the Spring was noted for the water, which was always a clear blue.

Mr. Baucom also told us Monsieur Price had a daughter who married a Hargett whose grandson was James Ruffin Hargett. He lived near Allen's Cross Road.

Our next trip was to the Court House of Anson County at Wadesboro, N. C. First we went to the Register of Deed's Office. Loyd Price was in service during World War Number One with Francis Liles, the present registrar. We were treated most cordially. We made a list of several records of Deeds and Grants made to Prices. Some of the dates were 1773, 1786, 1794, 1797 and others in the early 1800. But we could not find any information as to Monsieur Price's wife.

We were advised to go to the office of the Clerk of Court and perhaps we might find a will that would give us some information. There we found the first record by the name of Price which was "Will of Monsieur Price". And the first bequest was "to my beloved wife Mary". He took care of his sons in the will; then he bequeathed "to my daughter Sinea one fether bed and ferneture one cow a calf with other housing ferneture".

Joseph Price's Will was also recorded. So we held the original wills of our first and second grandfathers to live in America in our hands and got a wonderful thrill. We each obtained a certified copy of both wills.

So now we do know our first American Grandmother was named Mary and do hope some day to know more about her. I would like to take the opportunity today to tell you a little about Joseph Price's wife, Elizabeth McCollum Price Phifer. Elizabeth McCollum was a daughter of Daniel McCollum of Strabane, Ireland who came to America in the latter part of the Seventeenth Century and married Margaret Morton and settled in Mecklenburg County, N. C. They had three sons, John, James and Daniel W. They also had four daughters, Pol'y, Margaret, Elizabeth and Sara.

Daniel McCollum, Elizabeth's father moved from Mecklenburg County to a section now known as Union County, N. C. There Daniel bought land and settled near a stream known as Richardson Creek." (From A. S. McCollum's records of the McCollum family) Elizabeth McCollum was born May 4, 1796. Joseph Price was born December 15, 1797 and they were married March 31, 1814. My father, Andrew Joseph Price, was the youngest child of Elizabeth McCollum Price, being born August 1, 1837 after his father, Joseph Price's death May 2, 1837. When my father was about two years old his mother married David Phifer and moved to his home near Wesley Chapel Methodist Church. My father and the other children called their stepfather "Uncle Davie".

My father talked a great deal about his mother. He loved her dearly and respected her highly. From what I remember from his conversation about his mother she was a small woman in stature, fair complexion and blue eyes. In her last years her hair became very thin and he said she was the nearest bald-headed woman he ever saw. She was an interesting conversationalist and had plenty of the Irish wit. She believed in speaking correctly and distinctly. My father often in correcting us on our speech would remark, "if your grandmother were living you would use your lips and speak distinctly." She did not approve of nicknames either. She always called her children by their real names as, James, McCollum and Joseph.

Today we have two ladles that belonged to Elizabeth McCollum (Price) Phifer. The pewter one was brought by her family from Ireland. The China ladle was given to her as a present by her daughter-in-law, Margaret McCorkle Price. The last visit she made, riding her horse, to visit her son, James Price and family, she carried the ladles and gave them to Cousin Lizzie Price. She told her the China one had belonged to her mother and she wanted her to be sure to get it. She asked Cousin Lizzie to keep the ladles as long as she lived or to be sure and give them to someone that would care for them. Cousin Lizzie said as I was the youngest grandchild of Grandma Phifer, and she believed I would care for them, she was giving them to me and she would ask of me the same as Grandma Phifer had asked of her. They were given me in the summer of 1915. When they were given me Cousin Lizzie said the China one was one hundred and eight years old.

The little chair you see was always at our home and known as grandma's chair. Originally it had rockers but they were worn off before I could remember. We also had two teaspoons that were hers.

Today I have with me three bills of sale of negro slaves she bought at her second husband, David Phifer's sale, when his estate was being settled. A negro man Tom, thirty-seven or thirty eight years old, was bought for $830.00. Elam, ten years old, was bought for $727.00 and Emily, about sixteen years old was bought for $1170.00.

Our grandmother and her step-son, McCollum Phifer administered on the David Phifer estate.

Elizabeth McCollum Phifer died of pneumonia January 17, 1875, age 78 years, 8 months and 13 days, and is buried in the McWhorter Cemetery near Lester Winchester's home.

Respectfully submitted,
Lucy Price, President
June 10, 1956
